Commitment to Truth and Reconciliation

Mind – To Know

In recognition of National Indigenous Peoples Day, and in alignment with the CBE Education Plan,

Sundance School

acknowledges and supports the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada's (TRC) Calls to Action, and makes the following commitment to action for the 2026-2027 school year:

Body-To Do: Be a Good Ancestor by Leona Prince and Gabrielle Prince Illustrated by Carla Joseph

Physical & Experiential – Engage in land-based learning (learning on, from, and with the land).

Land & Place – Learn about the land outside our doors. Share our learning and make a commitment to reconciliation through the French CBE Land Acknowledgement.

Mind -To Know: Design and offer student and staff learning tasks that intentionally activate the spirit, heart, body, and mind

Sundance School will continue to commit to design and offer learning tasks that authentically use the Blackfoot teachings of Elder Saa'kokoto. Sundance will continue to honour the work of the trilingual original Sundance Opera: Piita li poh-ta/ Piita is Soaring/ Le vol de l'aigle through the new release of our school song in honour of Elder Saa'kokoto.

Spirit – To Belong

Heart – To Belong

63.3: Commit to learning about and through Indigenous knowledges focused on building student capacity for intercultural understanding, empathy, and mutual respect (focus on renewing respectful relationships between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples).
